

Constance Gave Me My Life Back

Brenda Cronin, a WSJ associate editorial features editor published an article detailing how Constance Evans, RN, cared for when she fractured her hip back in March 5, 2020. At first, Brenda wasn't sure if home care was suited for her, but after meeting Constance, realized that the highlights of her day during recovery, was her home visit from Connie. It was thanks to her that Brenda feels like she was able recover and return to her normal life after a difficult period.

WSJ subscribers can read the full article here.