

Dan Savitt Featured in the 2022 Health Care Power 100

City & State NY featured VNS Health President and CEO Dan Savitt in the publication's "2022 Health Care Power 100" list. Those recognized in the prestigious list include public health officials, hospital and health plan executives, leaders of nonprofits and labor organizations, and activists from across New York State.

In announcing the 2022 list, City & State NY noted that these leaders, "have shaped New York's response to the pandemic – and other pressing health care matters – over the past year."

In their write-up, City & State NY acknowledges that in the year since he was appointed CEO, Dan has "shepherded new partnerships" with companies that can enhance patient care while maintaining focus on VNS Health's mission.
