

Dan Savitt Q&A on Keeping Home Care Equitable Despite CMS Cuts

VNS Health President and CEO, Dan Savitt was recently featured in Crain's NY Business Health Pulse Q&A on the recent proposed changes to Medicare and Medicaid by the federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid services. The proposed changes could potentially impact home care agencies' ability to provide care services for vulnerable communities and populations. Dan spoke with the publication on how agencies can keep their services accessible, despite the potential cuts.

Crain's subscribers can view the full Q&A here.

Source

Crain's New York Business

Display Featured Image

1

Utility Tile

Array