

David Rosales Joins News12 to Talk About Exciting Growth in Home Care Careers

David Rosales, EVP and chief strategy officer, recently spoke with News12 on “Real Deal” about the exciting opportunities, benefits, and career paths in home care. David says that hiring is VNS Health’s top priority and that the organization is hiring individuals whether they are an experienced health care worker or just starting out in the industry.

Hiring for home health care service has increased by 12.8% from 2022 to 2023, making the industry one of the largest growing in New York.

Interested in starting a career in home care and making a difference in the lives of others? Explore our open positions and start your career today!

Explore Our Careers

Source
News12
Utility Tile
Array