Recognition & Awards

WTWH Media Healthcare and Life Sciences announced The Frontline Honors Class of 2025 and included four VNS Health team members. They are part of a group of 45 people honored this year. The Frontline Honors Class recognizes frontline workers who do an outstanding job and show strong character while caring for patients.

The honorees were told about their awards in late January 2026. The four team members honored this year are:

Behavioral Health

- Natalie Kovacs, Program Coordinator, Parachute Program

Home Health & Home Care

- Teresa Lin, Vice President, Cultural Market Development
- Sabine Noel, Clinical Evaluation Manager and Registered Nurse

Skilled Nursing, Long-Term Care & Therapy

- Jean Verlus, Home Care Registered Nurse

This honor highlights VNS Health's commitment to providing exceptional support to our patients and their families across our behavioral health, home health, hospice, and skilled nursing services.

Spotlighting Exceptional Care

The annual Frontline Honors Class showcases industry leaders who elevate frontline care and serve as innovators in their fields. The awards recognize care leaders in five main areas: Behavioral Health; Home Health & Home Care; Hospice & Palliative Care; Senior Housing & Senior Living; and Skilled Nursing, Long-Term Care & Therapy.

According to WTWH Media, people can be nominated if they give excellent care, lead by example, and show strong dedication to helping patients and residents.

“We were thrilled to receive a record number of nominations for this year’s Frontline Honors,” says Tim Mullaney, vice president and editorial director of healthcare for WTWH Media. “This year’s honorees reflect a wide range of roles, settings, and organizations. Yet, they are united by their compassion, resilience, and unwavering commitment to the demanding work they do every day.”
